

Alternatives to Violence of the Palouse

Annual Report 2024 – 2025

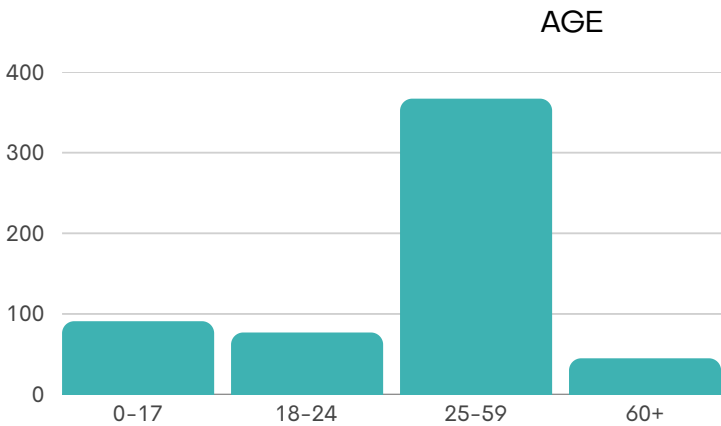

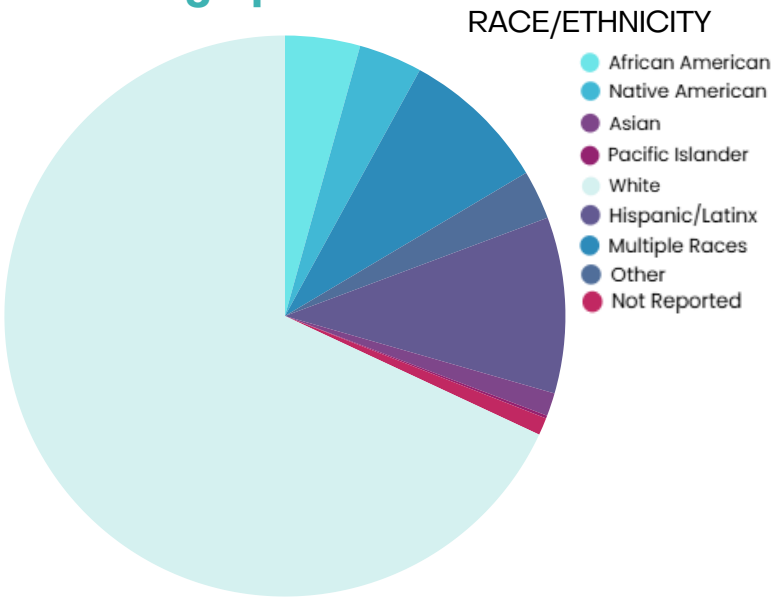

Alternatives to Violence of the Palouse is a non-profit organization dedicated to providing specialized advocacy to victims of crime in addition to community education and prevention programming. Founded in 1980, for now 45 years, our free, confidential and life saving services have been available in Whitman County, WA and Latah County, ID.

Service Highlights

561	Persons receiving advocacy services
3,920	Calls received on the 24-hour hotline
2,341	In person advocacy services
3,654.75	Hours of advocacy services
64	Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault support groups facilitated
2,480	Bed nights (one person, one night) at shelter
Safe, confidential shelter for 40 adults, 26 children and 12 families
9 volunteers donated 1,853.75 hours of service
555	Outreach events attended throughout the Palouse
38	Education presentations
	Systems coordination meetings with community partners

Demographics

MEETING SURVIVOR NEEDS

As a result of receiving ATVP services:

90% of survivors say they know more ways to plan for their safety;

90% of survivors say they know more about community resources.

Mission: ATVP empowers individuals affected by domestic violence, sexual assault, abuse and stalking. We work to create a sage and equitable community through education and prevention.